

Name: _____

Hour: _____

Rappaccini's Daughter Shared Inquiry Discussion Sheet

Question we will be discussing:

Is Professor Baglioni a good guy or a bad guy? Justify your thoughts with textual evidence!

Reasons why he is a good guy...	Reasons why he is a bad guy...

Ok, now that you've thought it out, write your answer prior to discussion: (Use a quote from the text!)

Discussion Notes:

As you observe the discussion, record any ideas you agree with and disagree with in the boxes below. Also write down any questions that come up as you listen to these new ideas. You need at least two in EACH box.

What I Agree With	What I Disagree With
Questions I Have	New Ideas

Post Discussion Questions:

How did the discussion affect your answer? Did it change? If so, why did it change?
If not, what additional support do you have for your original answer?

Assessment:

Score	F = 0	D – 1 or 2	C – 3 or 4	B – 5 or 6	A – 7 or 8
Indicator	<ul style="list-style-type: none">* Didn't share at all.* Didn't take notes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">* Shared one time, but needed to be called on.* Took some notes, but answer didn't include textual evidence	<ul style="list-style-type: none">* Shared once* Took pretty good notes and my answer included a reference to the text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">* Shared once or twice and built upon another's answer* Notes for the entire discussion and my answer uses a quote.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">* Shared multiple times and held add on to another answer* Asked a question to further our discussion.* My notes include reactions to my classmates ideas* My answer is in depth and includes a quotation and lots of explanation

Time to give yourself a grade – how did you perform today? Explain why you gave yourself that grade.

Your Favorite Educator's Assessment
